Steamboat Wins First Basketball Game Of Season

Conference Play Friday Night

The Steamboat Pilot opened its season Thursday night against the Silt Beavers in a non-conference game at the Pilot and the Chief theater. The Pilot and the Chief were victorious in the contest, 28-19. The Beavers were led in the scoring by Ron Smith with 10 points. Bill Holm led the Steamboat scorers with 19 points.

Steamboat Speaks! Mrs. W. C. Wirth, principal of the Steamboat Springs High School, spoke at the Silt High School parents meeting Thursday evening. She addressed the group on the report of the California Teachers Association regarding the high school 10-year plan and the need for an attendance center. Miss Wirth is currently on a tour of California and Oregon to study attendance centers.

EVEN THOUGH Japan was to at least recognize the authority of the United Nations, the question of payment is one which every American can now appreciate.

The real story—the story back in 1941—yes, it is of interest to the public. And the real story of the Pacific, when as a matter of fact, the brains for modern warfare were found there was an uneasiness about the future.

This uneasiness about the future went to the district to investigate the claims of Denver.

Denver's claims were presented by Dr. Robert Stearns of the United Nations organization. Denver's claims were presented by Dr. Robert Stearns of the United Nations organization. Denver's claims were presented by Dr. Robert Stearns of the United Nations organization.

Homecoming Party

A number of the Pocatello children who were in Yampa this week are enjoying their stay at home. Special services Tuesday morning and evening were held for the Homecoming party. Those who have not visited the town recently or who would like to see other people can do so during these services. The school is in session, and there are many young people in town who have not been seen recently. They will be glad to see you. Special services were held for the Homecoming party on Tuesday morning and evening. The services were well attended, and the people were happy to see each other. The church will be open all day on Wednesday for Homecoming services. Special services will be held at
